

CorrectionsOne.com's Reader Survey was conducted between August 12th and September 10th 2014, receiving 771 responses from verified corrections professionals across all ranks and department sizes.

Are you currently in Corrections or a Correctional officer?

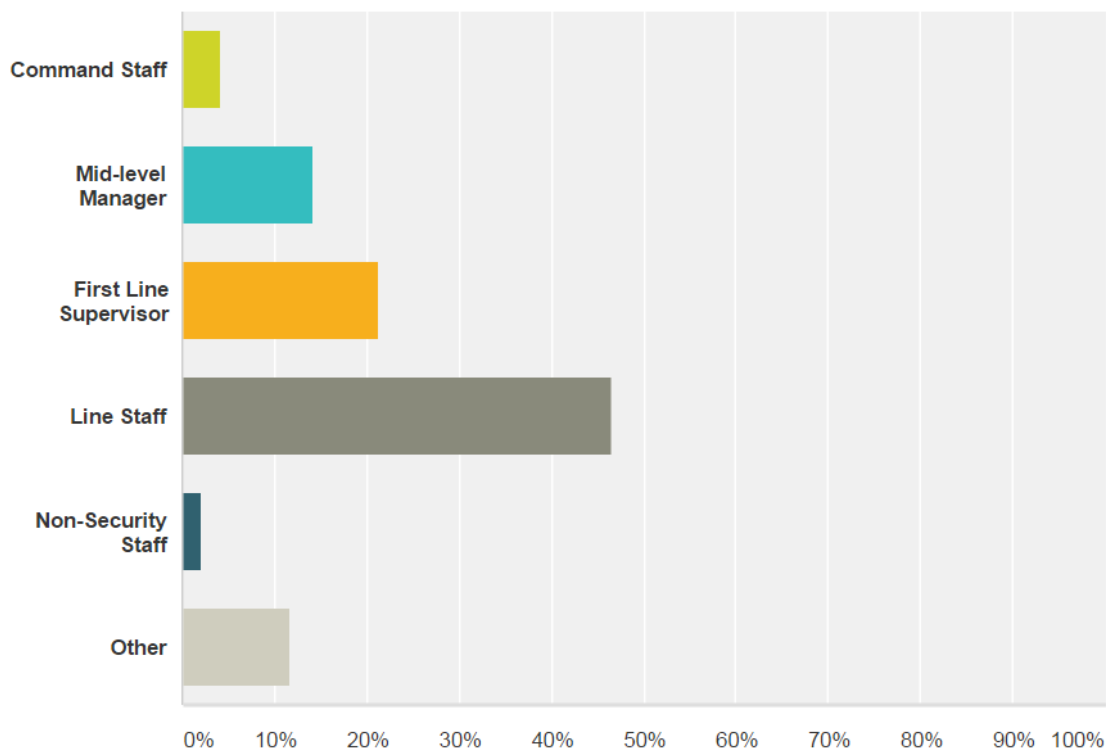

Those who answered "Non-Corrections" were disqualified from the survey.

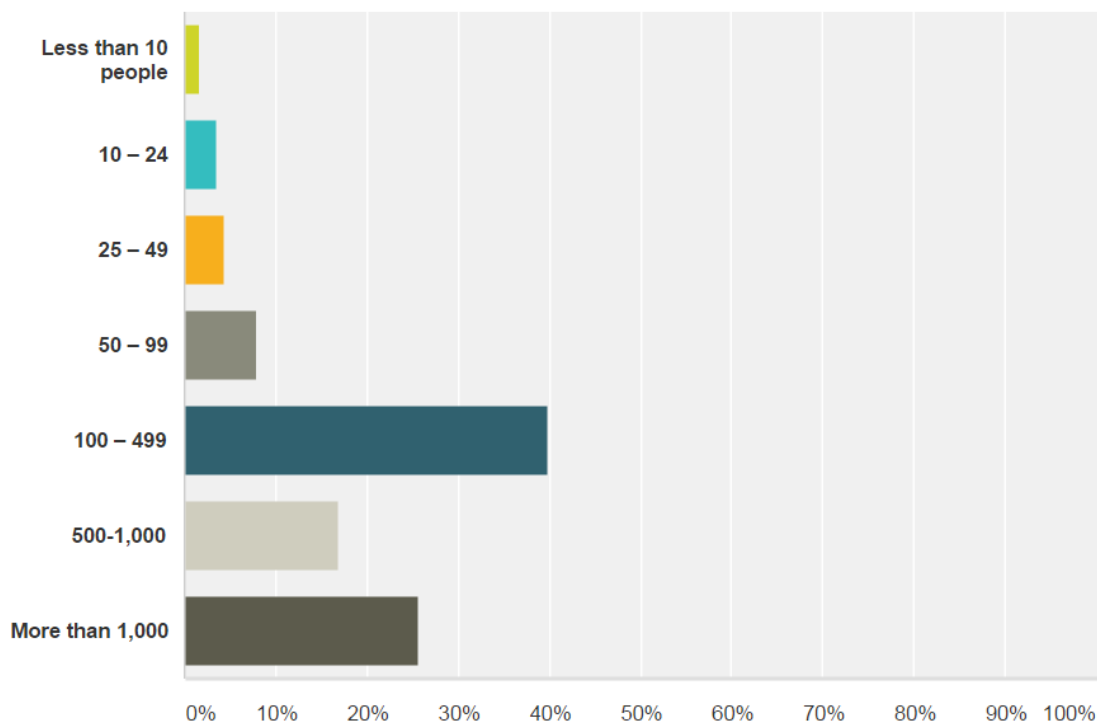

How many years have you been in the correctional industry?

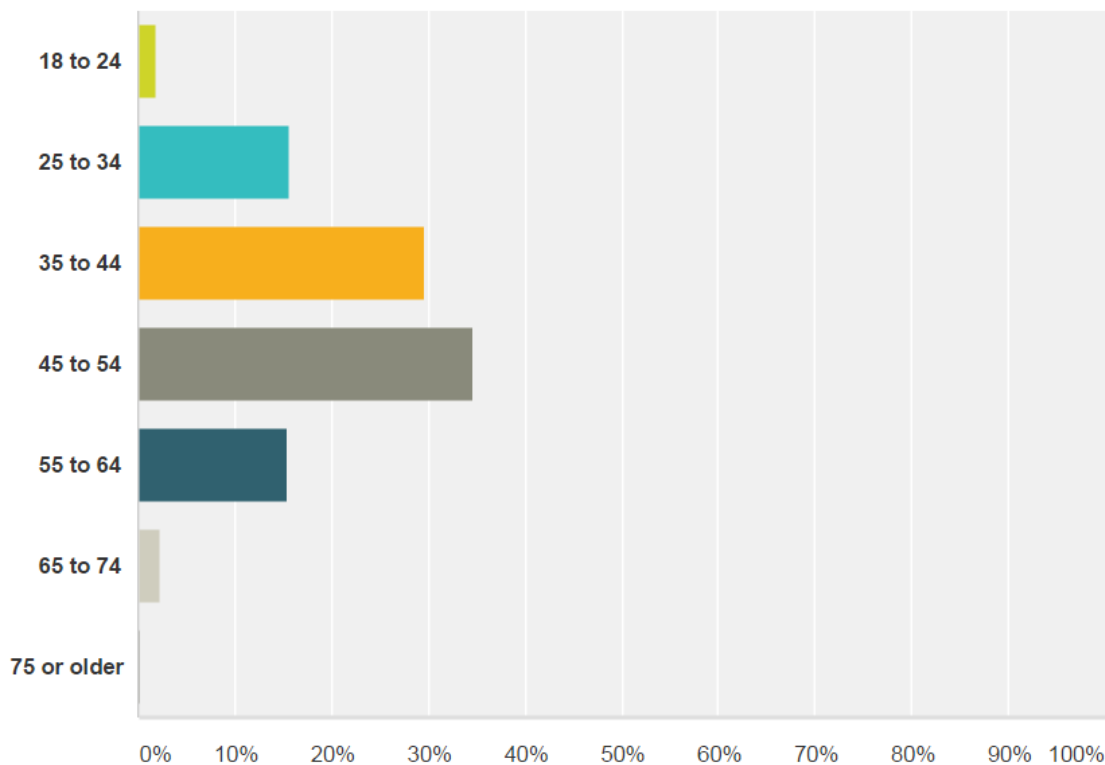

What is your current (or highest) rank?

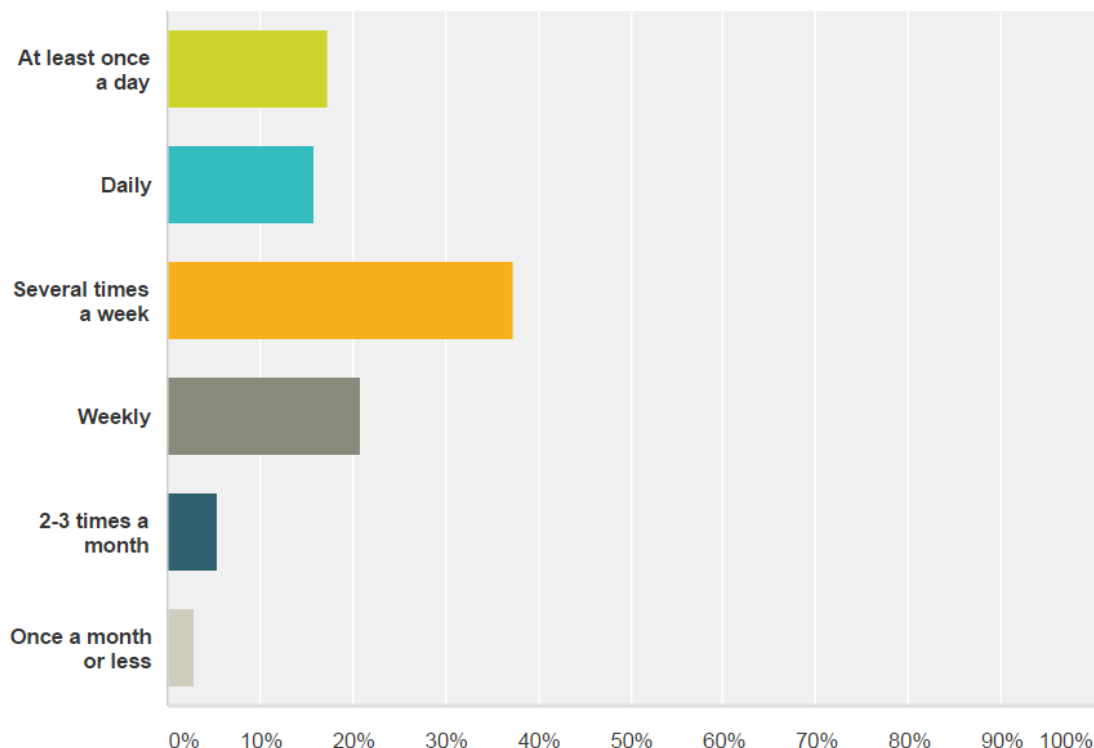

What is the size of your department/facility?

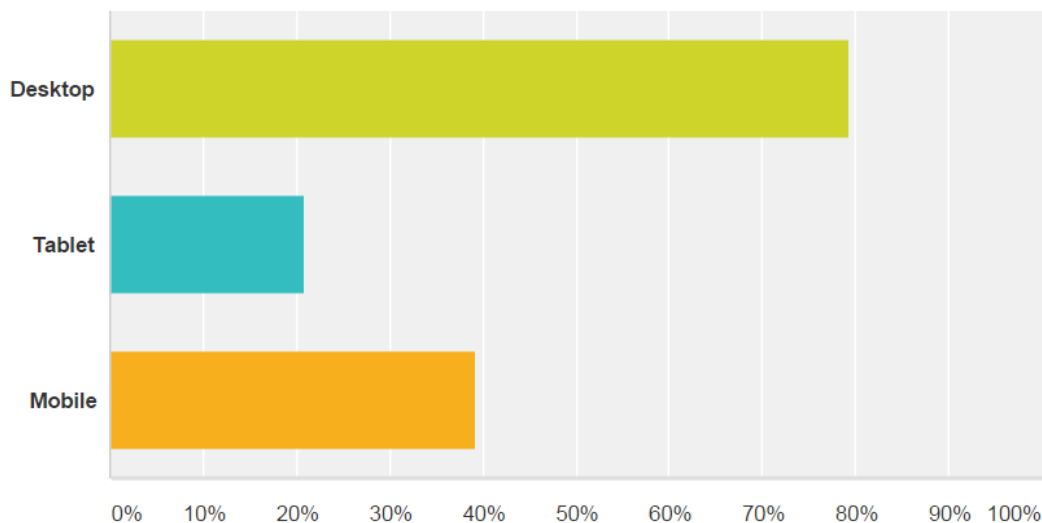

What is your age?

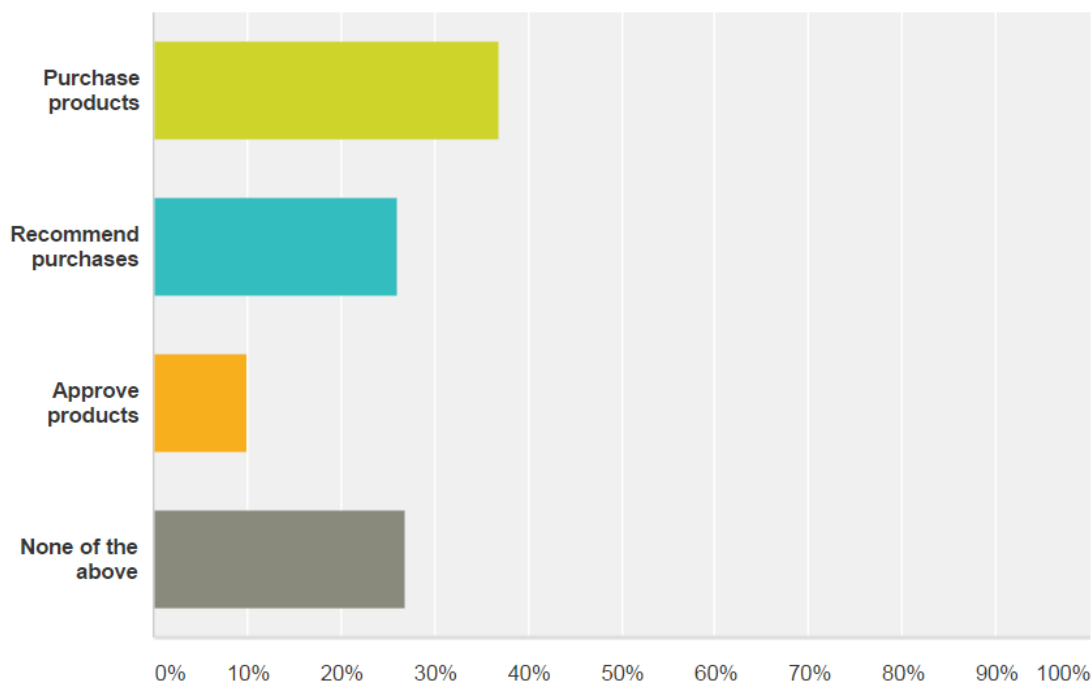

How frequently do you engage with CorrectionsOne (C1 Website, Email Newsletters, Facebook/Twitter)?

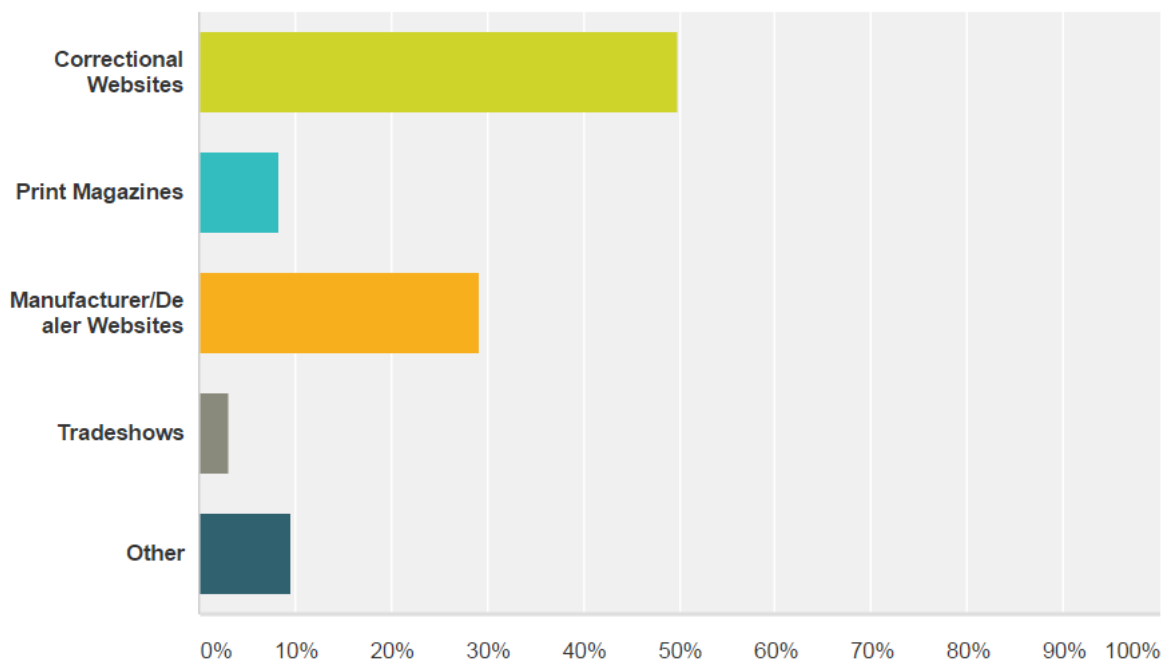

Which devices do you visit CorrectionsOne from? (Check all that apply)

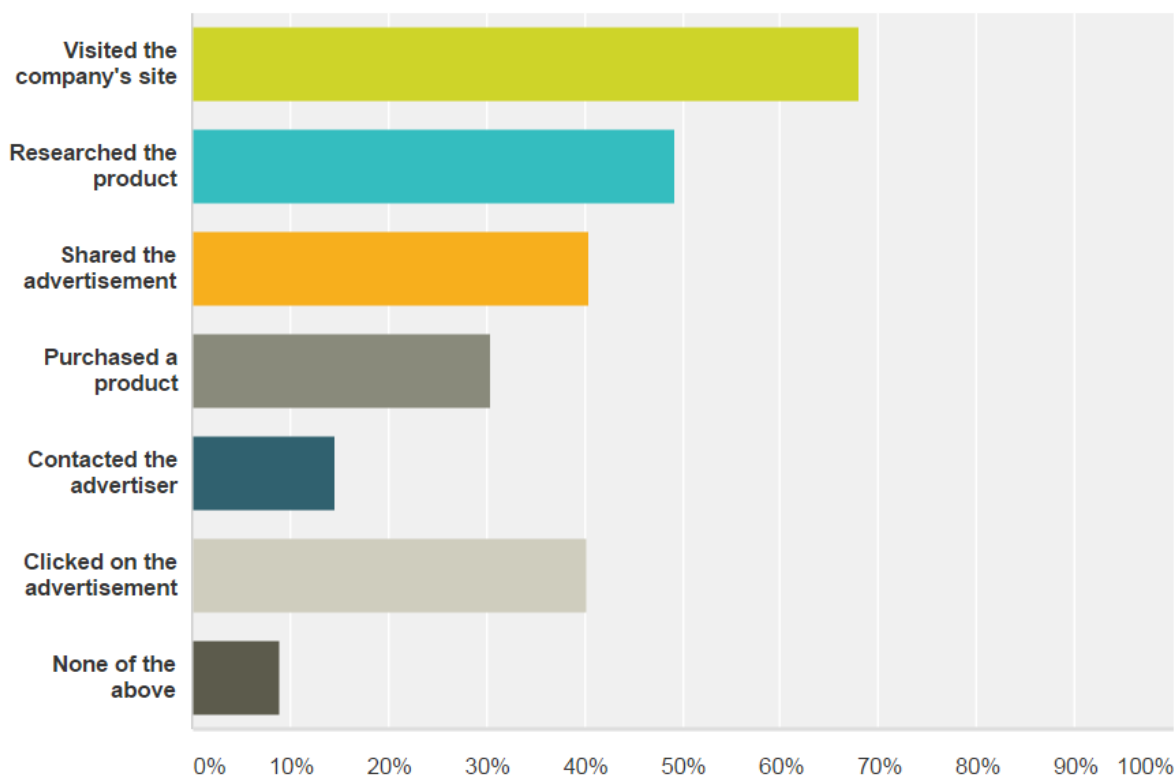

What best describes your role in purchasing products for your department/facility?

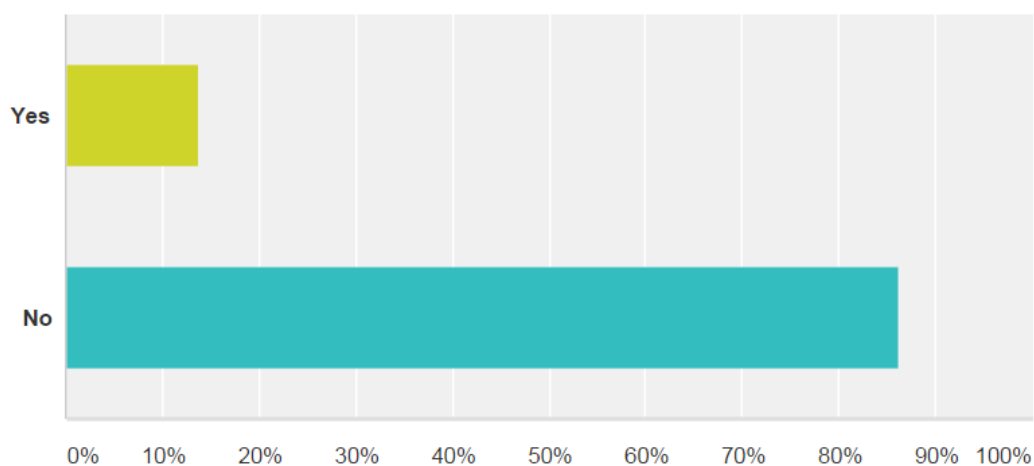

What is your primary source of product research when evaluating products?

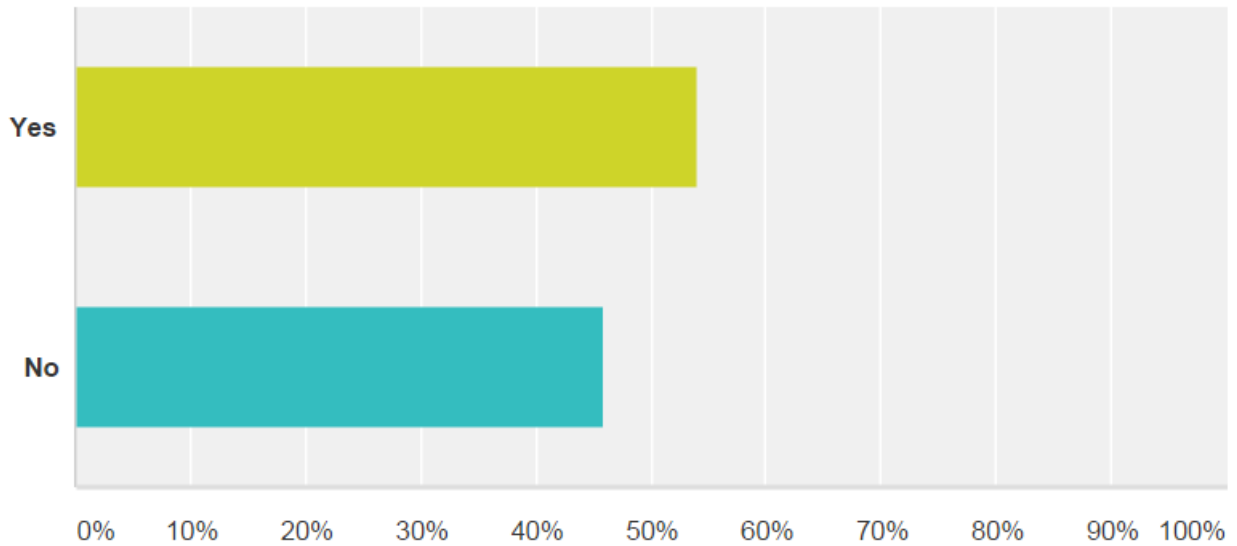

What actions have you taken as a result of viewing an advertisement on the CorrectionsOne website? (Check all that apply)

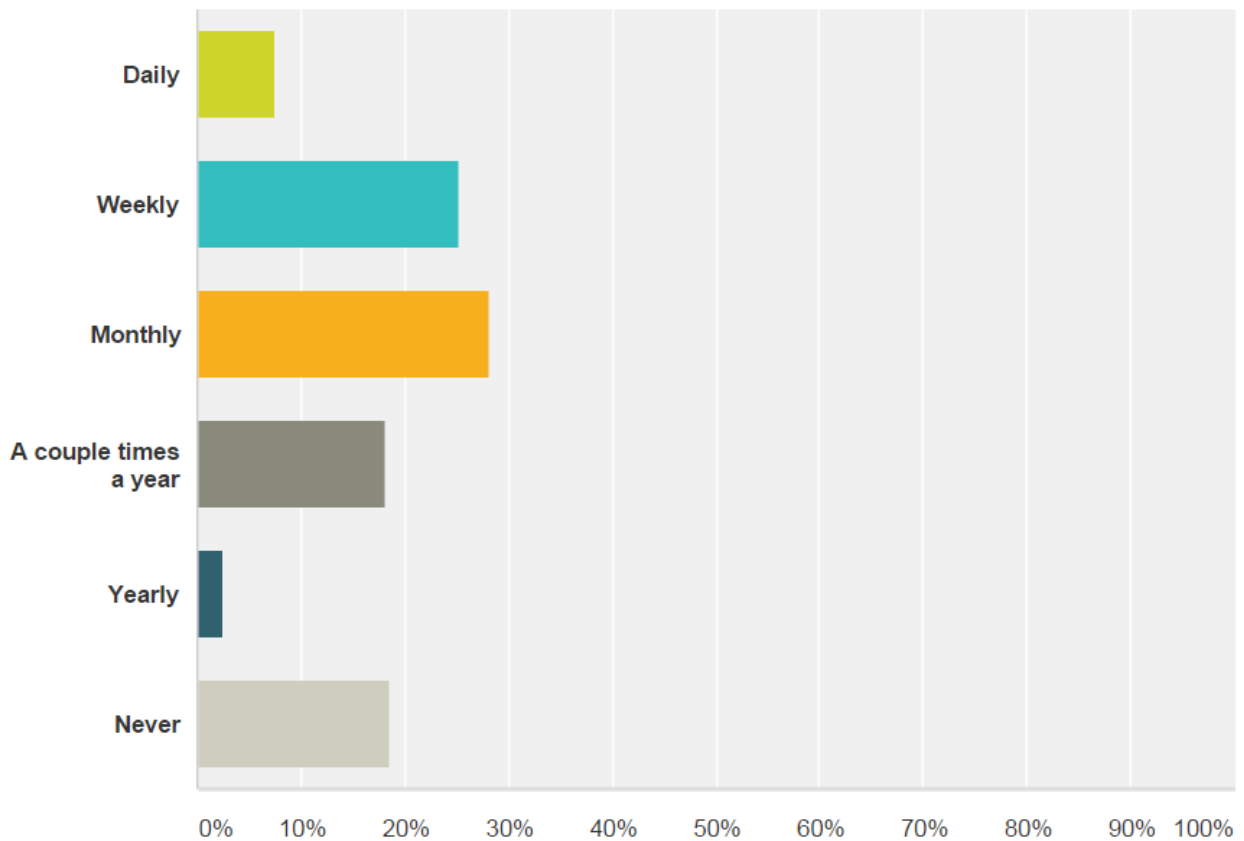

Have you attended a tradeshow or expo in the past year?

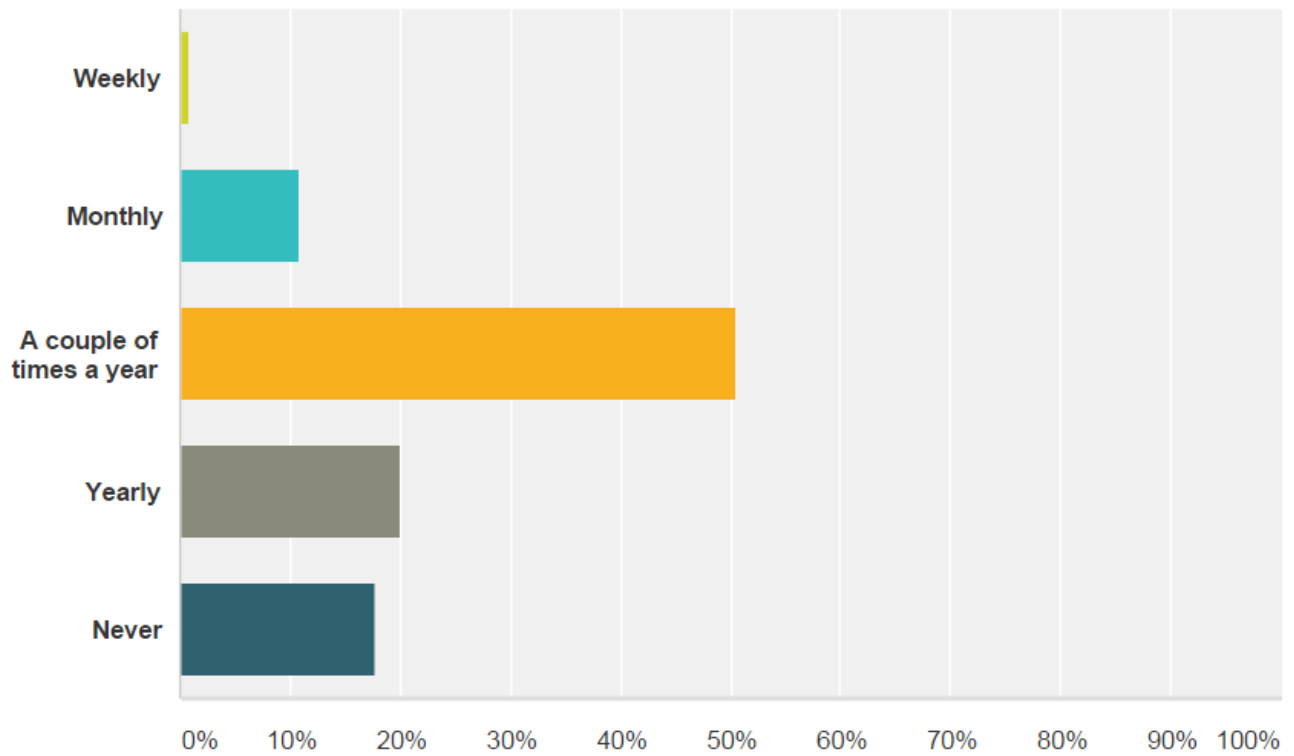

If yes, did you purchase products as a result of attending the show?

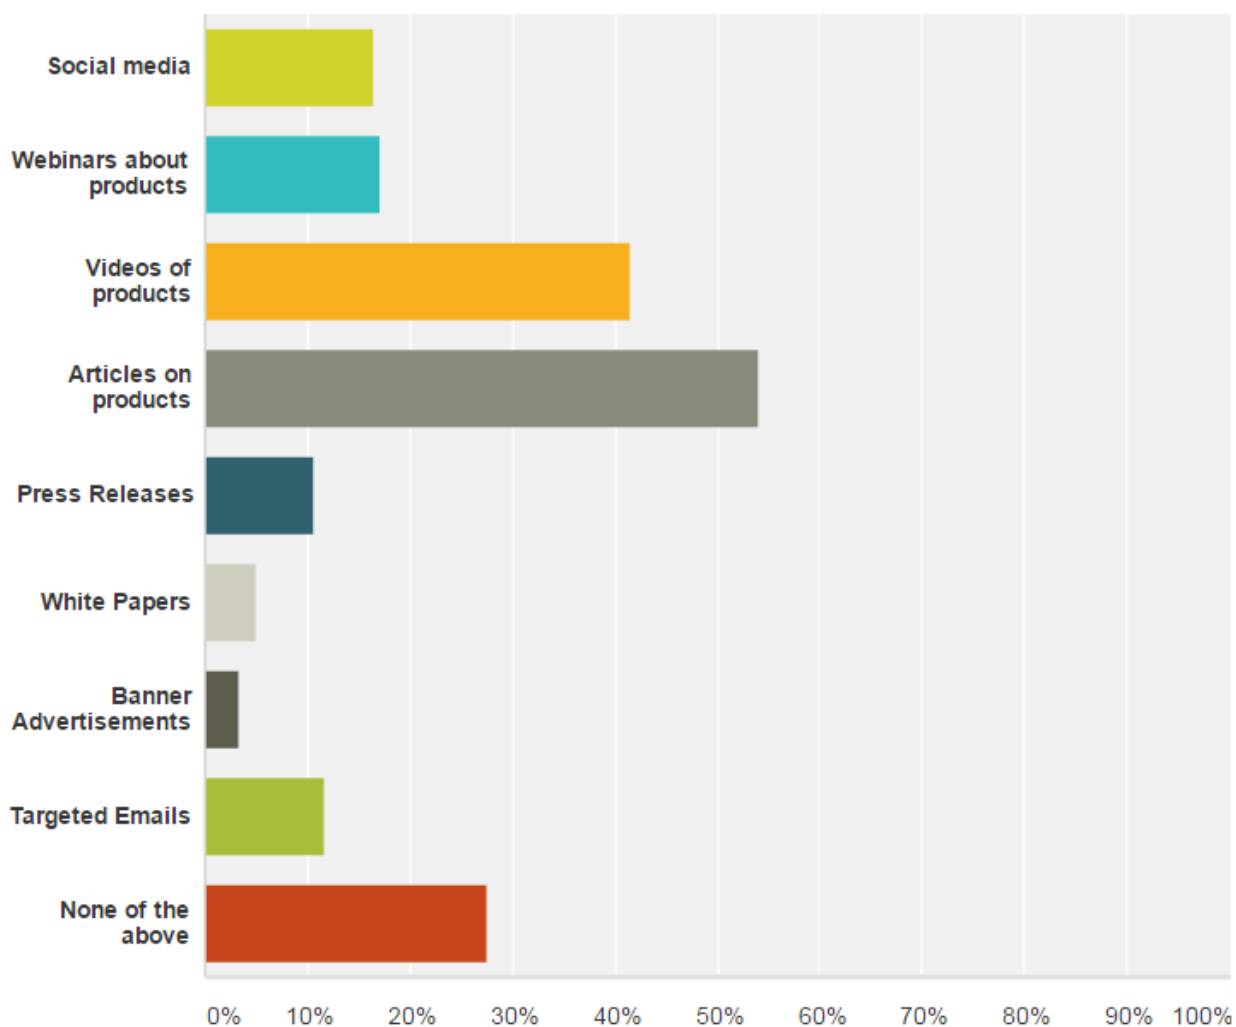

How often do you read industry print publications? (Ex: Corrections Today, Journal of Correctional Health Care)

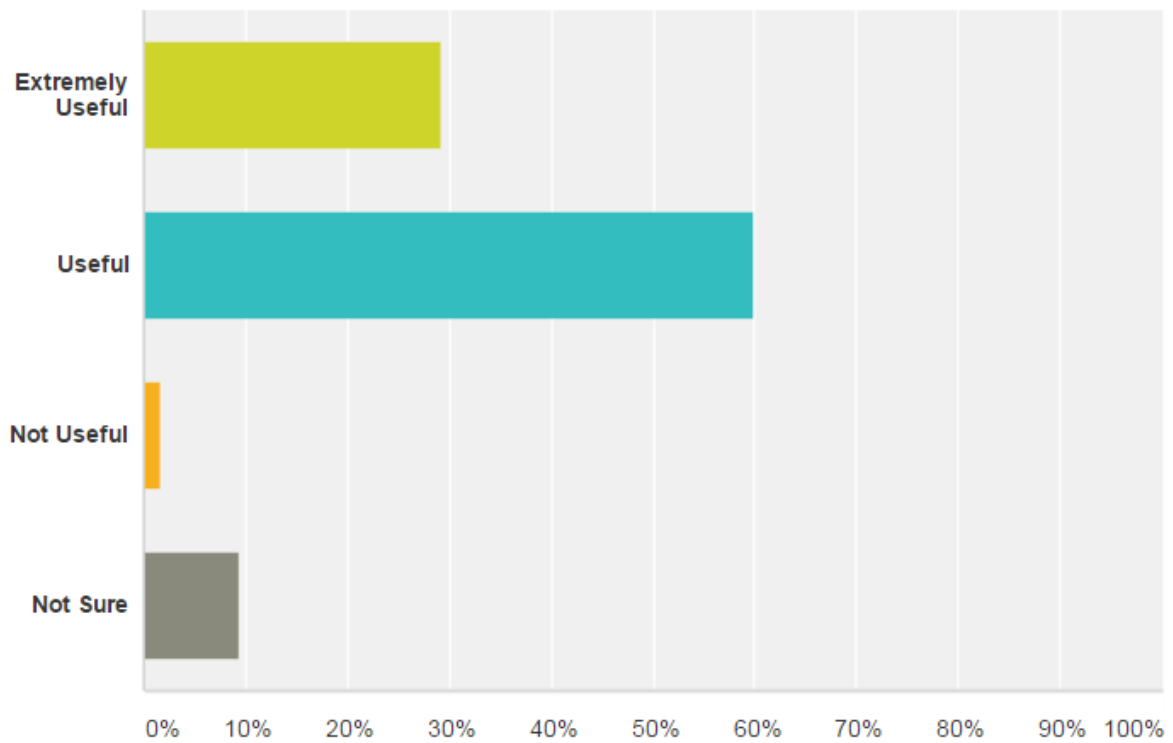

How often do you purchase correctional gear or other corrections-related products online?

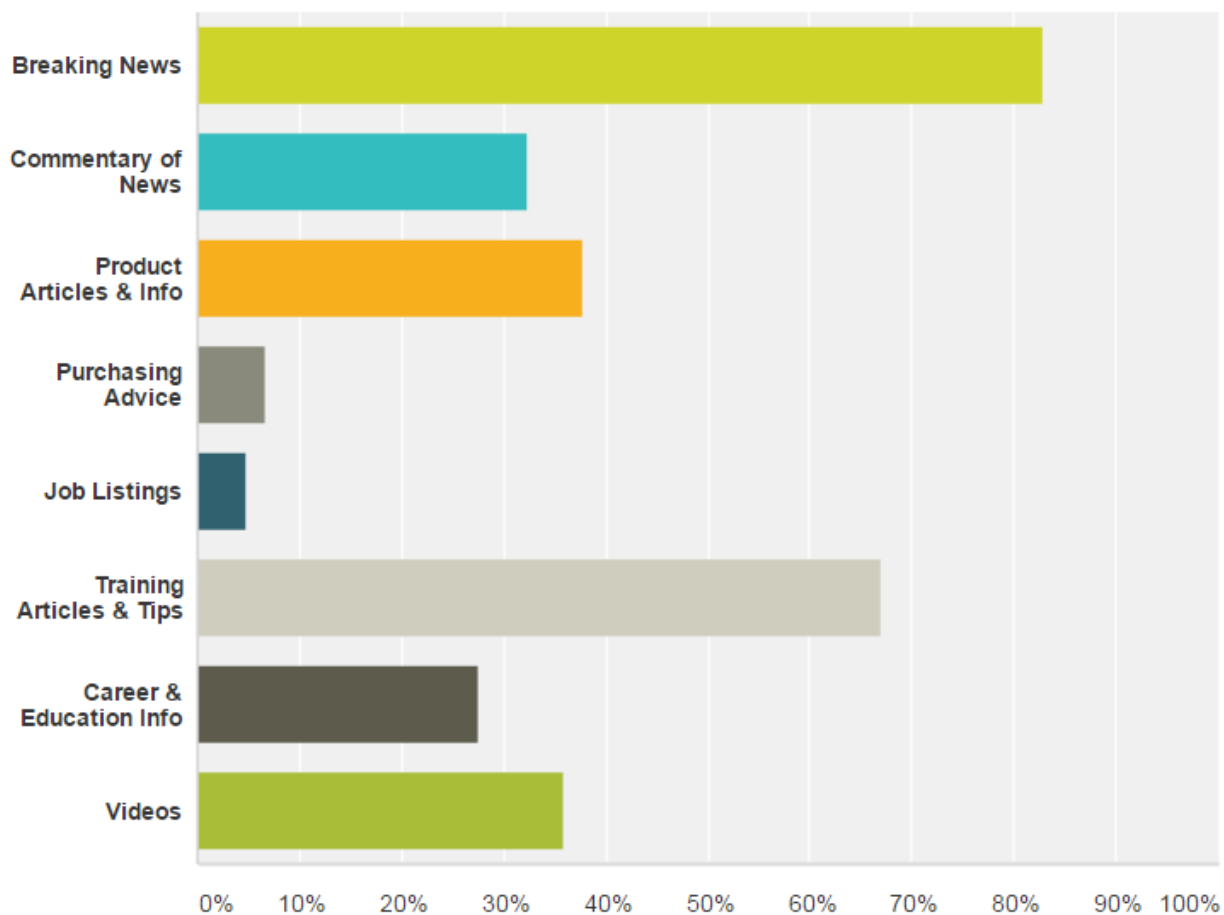

Which of the following has influenced you or your department/facility to try a new product? (Check all that apply)

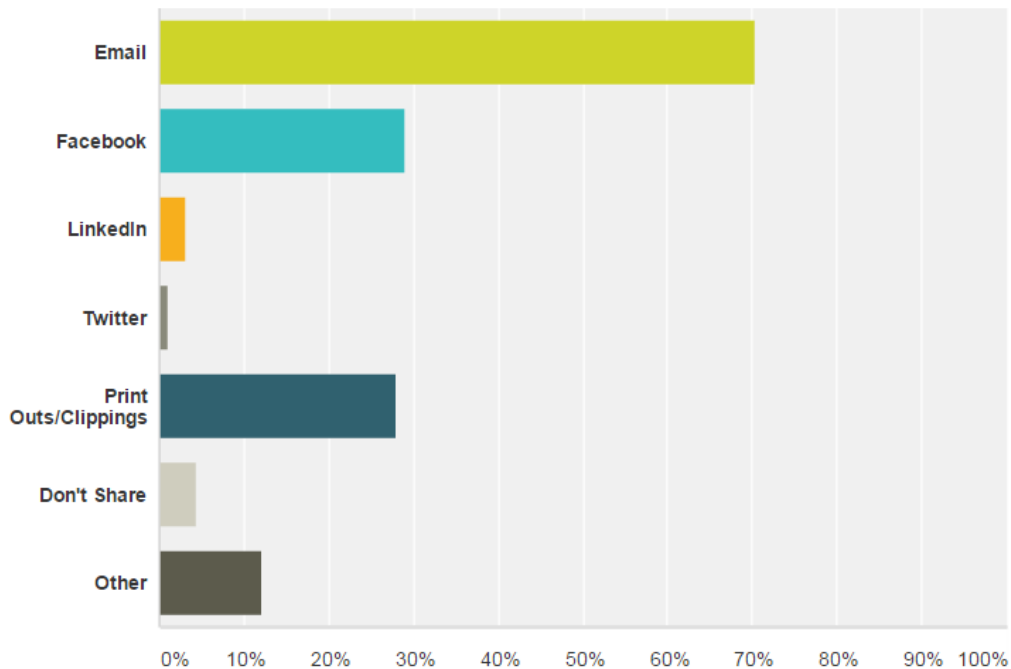

How would you rate the usefulness of CorrectionsOne's Product Categories in researching products?

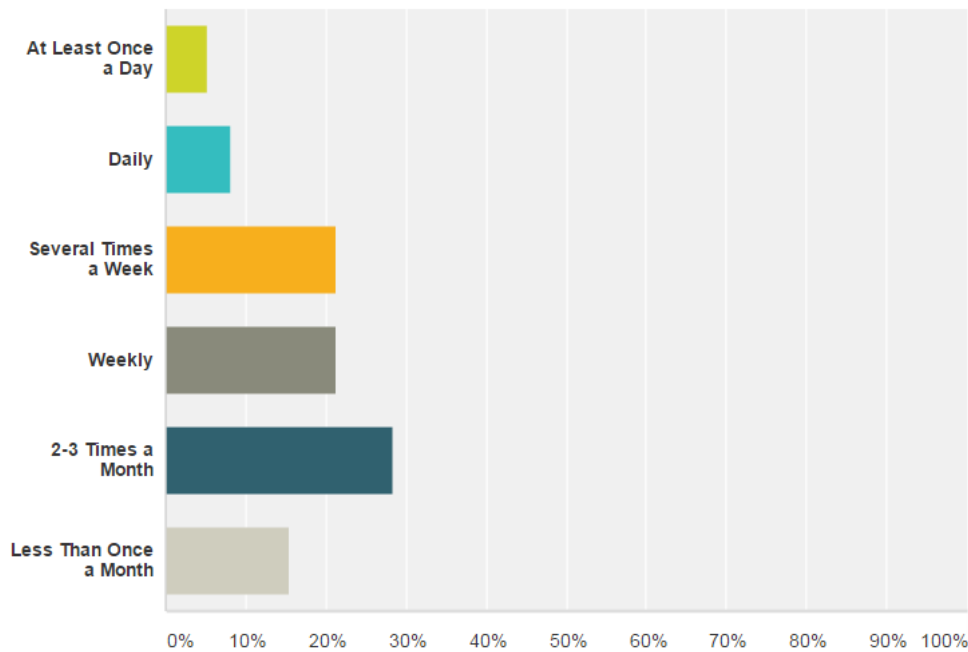

What information brings you to CorrectionsOne most often? (Check all that apply)

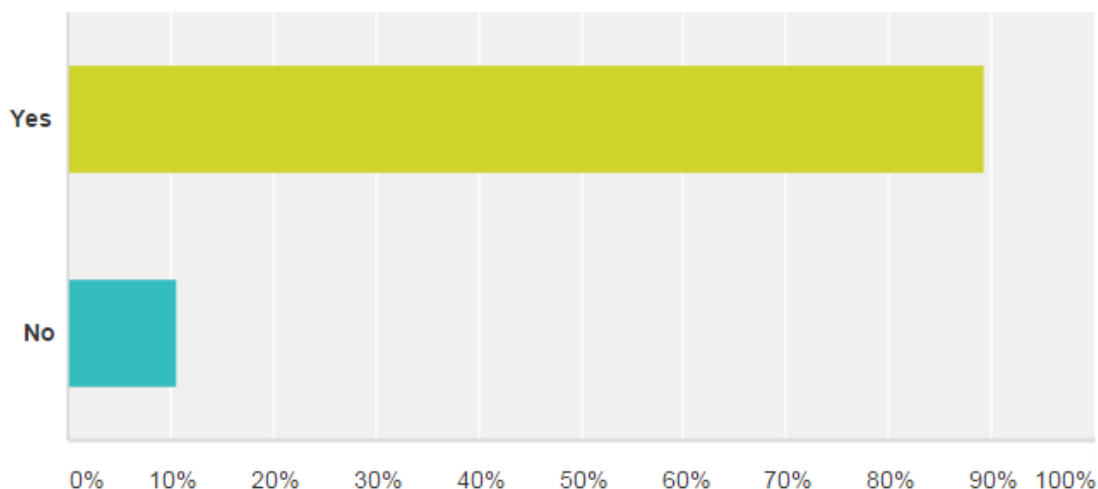

How do you typically share valuable information you read with colleagues and your larger network? (Check all that apply)

How often do you share the information you read with colleagues and your larger network?

Would you agree that resources on CorrectionsOne have directly impacted your performance and safety as a corrections officer?

Would you recommend CorrectionsOne as a product research tool to others in your department?

